

Daily Announcements ~ Thursday, September 27, 2018

College GO! Week – Hello, juniors! I hear some of you are in the driver’s seat now. I’ve got a question: would you buy a car you’ve never driven? I don’t think so! And you shouldn’t attend a college you haven’t visited. Visiting campuses is the best way to know where you’ll succeed. Come talk to the guidance counselors about getting passes for college visits, or plan a trip on the weekend. Visit learnmoreindiana.org/college for information on college visits.

The 24 Hours Plays - The Drama Club is excited to present the 3rd annual The 24 Hour Plays show on Saturday, September 29th at 7:00pm. This is a FREE event made up of a series of short skits that are written, produced, and performed by members of the BHS Drama Club. The Plays is a fast-paced, adrenaline inducing event filled with fun for the entire community. With just 24 hours between brainstorming ideas and performing a show, students move quickly to write, memorize, and perform skits created entirely of their original work. The Plays are wildly popular and well-received every year. Free will donations and canned goods are accepted at the door and will go toward the local food pantry, but admission is free. The BHS Drama Club hopes to see you at this exciting and fun event!

Attention Seniors - Mike Long from Jostens will return to BHS next Wednesday, Oct. 3rd, to pick up your senior orders. Every senior must order their own cap and gown. No other purchase is required. Mike will be located outside of the cafeteria during all 3 lunches on October 3rd to collect your orders. Please see Mrs. Mullins with questions.

Banned Book Week – Celebrate your Freedom to Read! Stop by the Media Center to check a book that has been banned or challenged due to its content or subject matter.
